WHAT TO BRING TO YOUR INTERVIEW:

Proof of Identity

You will be asked to provide photo identification at your Eligibility interview such as a Nevada Driver's license or state-issued Nevada I.D.

Proof of Address (choose one below):

- Nevada Driver's license, learner's permit or state-issued ID.
- Current utility bill with name/address.
- Current correspondence from a Clark County agency.
- Current correspondence from a Government agency (i.e. Social Security).
- Lease agreement or mortgage statement with the address of the residence, your name and your landlord's name and address.
- Pay stub with current home address.

Patients will be re-screened for Eligibility every six months.*

Proof of Income (check all that apply):

Each working member of the household must produce proof of income, such as:

- Federal tax return for the last year.
- Copy of the last three pay stubs from every person who works in the household.
- Unemployment benefits statement and proof of current payment history.
- Proof of social security/disability income or retirement/pension benefits. If you have direct deposit for these checks, you must provide a bank statement.
- Child support/alimony support documentation.
- If you are paid in cash, your employer must provide a letter verifying your income with contact information.
- If self-employed, bring a Profit and Loss statement or a record of state tax sales revenue for past year.
- If living on savings, you must provide three of your most recent bank statements.
- If no income, we require a letter of support from the person who provides food and shelter for you. In addition, that person must provide proof of income.

Required for children:

- Birth certificate and proof of vaccination.
- Ages 5-17: school ID.

Definitions

Household: Members of an immediate family who live in the same residence make up a household. That includes parents, sons, daughters, grandparents and children for whom the parents have legal custody.

Children living in the same household as their parents, regardless of age, will be considered part of the household. Children who do not live with their parents may be included on an application if the parent can show that they support the child financially.

Proof of identity must be provided for each member of the household (including children) listed on your application.

Others living in the household, such as sisters, brothers, aunts, uncles or friends must apply separately.

Individual: A single person who lives alone or resides with others but does not qualify as a member of their household.

VMSN does not discriminate against patients on the basis of race, sex, color, age, national origin, sexual orientation or disability.*
